INTRODUCTION

Introduction – Zomato company

Zomato is one of India's leading online food delivery and restaurant discovery companies. Founded in 2008 by Deepinder Goyal and Pankaj Chaddah, the company helps customers find restaurants, read reviews, order food online, and get meals delivered to their doorstep.

Zomato operates through its mobile application and website, connecting millions of customers with restaurants across various cities. The platform provides restaurant listings, menus, ratings, reviews, online ordering, and real-time delivery tracking.

With the growing popularity of smartphones and digital payments, Zomato has become a major player in the online food delivery industry. Its mission is to make food accessible and convenient for everyone while helping restaurants expand their customer base.
